Qualifications:

We are fluent, native English language speakers and writers originally from the USA who write and publish at the academic level and who make oral presentations at international conferences and symposiums. Since 2012, clients have hired us to edit articles for academic journals and conference proceedings, chapters for books, entire books, and Masters and Doctoral theses. Our clients include professors, lecturers and post-graduate students from UM, UPSI, UKM and other universities working in diverse fields, for example, linguistics, performing arts, music, music education, dance studies, dance education, visual arts, business, economics, maritime security, textiles, and political history.

Professional Editing Rates:

RM15 per page for true double-spacing (not 1.5 spacing)

RM25 per page for single-spacing

Add RM5 per page for short notice

Short notice means if you want your document returned to you within 3 to 5 days of submission to the editors, provided the document is no longer than 15 pages single-spacing or 30 pages true double-spacing.

Fifty percent (50%) down payment requested. Balance due upon completion. Bank account information will be provided to client/author upon mutual agreement to proceed with the editing project.

Rates negotiable for Masters and Doctoral theses

Document Layout:

The document shall be in WORD format, one-inch margins, with font Arial or Times New Roman, 12-point size or as agreed upon between author and editors.

Limitations:

The work agreed upon is for editing English grammar, spelling and sentence flow for suitable comprehension. For ethical reasons, we (the editors) refrain from rewriting and re-formulating the author's original ideas and content. Final formatting requirements and accuracy of citations and references are the author's responsibility.
